"All the days ordained for me were written in Your book before one of them came to pass" (Psalm 139:16).

As we celebrate the New Year, the newspapers and television are once again full of reviews of the past and predictions of the future. But, what about you, personally? What has the past year brought? What does the future promise?

The folk song says, "He's got the whole world in His hands, He's got you and me brother in His hands." As we enter another year, He indeed has got your life in His hands. As Psalm 31:15 says, "My times are in Your hands."

Romans 8:28 assures us, "And we know that God works all things together for the good of those who love Him." As you look back over 2015, and back over your entire life, it is easy to see the good in many blessed events: love, laughter, joy, happiness. But, it is much harder to see the good at other times: illness, suffering, strife, struggle, pain, death.

If you have ever seen a cloth woven in a loom, you know that the front side presents a beautiful pattern, but the back side is a jumbled, knotted mess, with no discernable pattern at all. There is a poem which compares our lives to such a weaving:

My Life Is But a Weaving

*My life is but a weaving
between my Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colors,
He worketh steadily.*

*Of times He weaveth sorrow,
And I, in foolish pride,
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the under side.*

*Not 'til the loom is silent and the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why.*

*The dark threads are as needful
in the Weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver in the pattern He has planned.*

*He knows, He loves, He cares,
nothing this truth can dim.
He gives His very best to those who leave the choice with Him.*

As that poem says so beautifully, in this earthly life we look up toward heaven and see only the back side, the jumbled, knotted mess of our lives, with no discernable pattern that often doesn't make sense. But, God looking down from heaven sees the front side of the weaving of our days, the true pattern of our lives. And God is working all things together for our good, according to His pattern and plan.

In God's wisdom, the weaving of our days indeed has many bright and happy colors: the joyous times of life. But, according to God's plan, the pattern of our lives also has contrasting, darker colors: the times of sadness, suffering, sorrow.

Paul assures us in Romans 8:35-39 that through it all God is with you always: "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? . . . No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Whatever the New Year brings, whatever the rest of your life holds, your times are in His hands.

Pastor's Article in National Magazine

Pastor Vogts' article from last month's Trinity Tribune was "picked up" by the national magazine and web site The Federalist (www.thefederalist.com/2015/12/24/isis-doesnt-want-you-to-celebrate-christmas).

The article was slightly edited—such as using the spelling Quran instead of Koran—and the title changed from "Christmas Is Why They Hate Us" to "ISIS Doesn't Want You to Celebrate Christmas." However, otherwise the article was reprinted in this national magazine and web site just as it appeared in our church newsletter.

Christmas in the Old Testament

The old German Christmas hymn "Behold, a Branch is Growing" says, "Isaiah hath foretold it, in words of promise sure." During January we will continue our study in Adult Bible Class on The Prophets Have Foretold It: Christmas in the Old Testament.

We are very familiar with the Christmas story from the New Testament. In this Bible study we are looking at the many prophecies of Christ's birth that are also found in the Old Testament, including:

- ❖ He will be born of a woman—Genesis 3:15;
- ❖ He will be a descendant of Jacob—Numbers 24:17;
- ❖ He will be born in Bethlehem—Micah 5:2;
- ❖ He will be miraculously born of a Virgin—Isaiah 7:14;
- ❖ He will be "Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace"—Isaiah 9:6.

Join in this fascinating study on Sundays at 9:00am in the Overflow.

This winter we are again having extra services of Holy Communion, on both the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month, in October, November, December, January, and February. This provides an extra opportunity to receive the Sacrament for those who may not be able to attend worship on the first Sunday of the month due to inclement weather.

LCMS missionary Rev. David Warner recently conducted what may be the first Lutheran Baptism in Spain in nearly 500 years!

Long After the Inquisition Lutheranism Returns to Spain

After Martin Luther nailed the 95 Theses to the door of Wittenberg's Castle Church in 1517, the ideas of the Reformation spread across Europe during the next few decades.

In Spain, these ideas took root among some Spanish Christians, especially in monasteries like San Isidoro near Seville. But, after seeing the growing religious unrest that was occurring elsewhere in Northern Europe, the Spanish Inquisition, which had been in effect since 1478, moved to quell the movement within its borders.

Reformation-minded Spanish Christians who chose not to flee were arrested, and some were even burned at the stake. It wasn't until nearly 500 years later that a Lutheran presence would again return to the country.

In 2000, a Lutheran family in Spain partnered with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Argentina to lay the foundation for a Spanish Lutheran church. Between 2000 and 2014, three Argentine missionaries served in Spain, where they led outreach efforts and established Lutheran missions.

With the partnership of the LCMS, the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Spain (IELE) was planted and recognized by the Spanish Government in 2004. In October 2010, the Rev. Juan Carlos was installed as the first—and only—native Spanish pastor of the IELE.

As Lutheranism finally returns to Spain nearly 500 years after it was abolished by the infamous Spanish Inquisition, Rev. Adam and Christine Lehman and their children recently became the second LCMS missionary family serving in this new mission field.

The Rev. David Warner and his wife, Shelee, moved to Seville in April, 2015 to become the first full-time LCMS missionaries to the country. Warner provides pastoral care to some 80 Lutherans scattered around Spain, mentors four men who are currently studying to become pastors, and provides ongoing Greek and Hebrew instruction to Rev. Carlos. Warner also is working to secure a permanent worship space for the growing congregation in Seville, as well as looking for funding for similar sites in Madrid and Cartagena.

“The members of the IELE are very inspiring,” Warner said. “They became members because they were convinced that Lutheran doctrine is true and faithful. They are committed even though they lack facilities, worship opportunities and pastoral care. I am humbled to be serving them.”

On May 23, 2015 Warner performed his first Baptism on the mission field. While many Roman Catholic family members watched, the grandson of one of the original members of the IELE became God's child through the waters of Holy Baptism.

“I preached a Law and Gospel sermon about the miracle of Baptism and salvation by faith and then went out to dinner and spoke with members of the family for a couple of hours as the plates of food kept coming,” he said. “Lord willing, the many seeds planted will take root and grow.”

The Rev. Adam Lehman and his family recently joined the Warners as LCMS missionaries to Spain. The Lehmans look forward to their life and work on the Iberian Peninsula.

“Having learned more about the history and development of Spain, I have realized what a great blessing it is to be privileged to serve as a Lutheran pastor in Spain at this time,” Lehman said, reflecting on his call to serve as a church planter there. “After being snuffed out via the Spanish Inquisition, the Lutheran Reformation has now returned to Spain!”

MISSION NEWS

LCMS Sends 20 New Missionaries and Families into Service

In a jubilant “sending service” in the chapel at the The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod International Center in St. Louis, the LCMS recently sent 20 new missionaries—along with their 40 spouses and children—into service in 13 countries around the world. They join a global mission team of nearly 130 other missionaries deployed to the four corners of the earth.

That number represents continued successful efforts toward doubling the number of LCMS career missionaries on the field to 136 by 2016—as called for by the 2013 Synod convention.

At the sending service, the Rev. Dr. Herbert C. Mueller, First Vice-President the Synod, preached the sermon and encouraged the missionaries and their families. “You are signs of Christ's presence and Christ's care, signs always pointing to Christ crucified and risen, alive and giving away His life.”

The missionaries—slated for East and West Africa, Latin America, Eurasia, Asia Pacific and Southern Asia—completed an intensive two-week orientation to prepare for service overseas. They will serve in diverse roles, including as nurses, evangelists, deaconesses, theological educators, and international school chaplains.
